This matter comes before the court on a review of the pleadings in this case. Plaintiff brought this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) and § 1383(c)(3) to obtain judicial review of the final decision of the Commissioner of Social Security (“Commissioner”) denying her claim for Disability Insurance Benefits (“DIB”). The two issues before the court are whether the Commissioner’s findings of fact are supported by substantial evidence and whether he applied the proper legal standards.

A review of the pleadings suggests the case may be subject to reversal and remand based on the ALJ’s failure to adequately evaluate Plaintiff’s subjective symptoms in accordance with applicable Social Security Rulings and Regulations. Therefore, the undersigned permits the Commissioner until October 16, 2019, to submit a supplemental brief explaining how the ALJ’s
